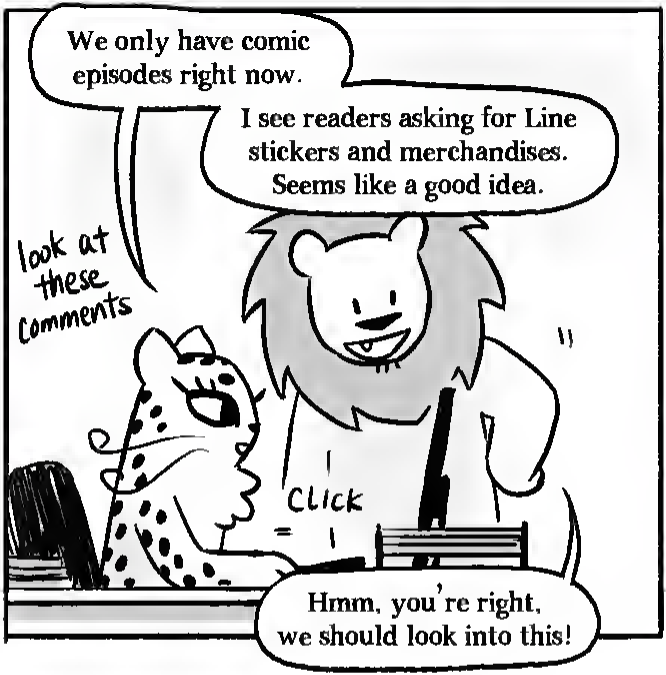
ROAR STREET JOURNAL



We only have comic episodes right now.
I see readers asking for Line stickers and merchandises. Seems like a good idea.

Hmm, you're right, we should look into this!

Hey guys! Now that our company is running smoothly, let's create more goodies for our readers!
We will start with... Line stickers!

I'd say Leo would like to have 20 stickers of himself.
Haha, yes I do! I'm the most expressive character here after all!
Maybe we can make another sticker set just for Leo!
Sounds good. That will come later.

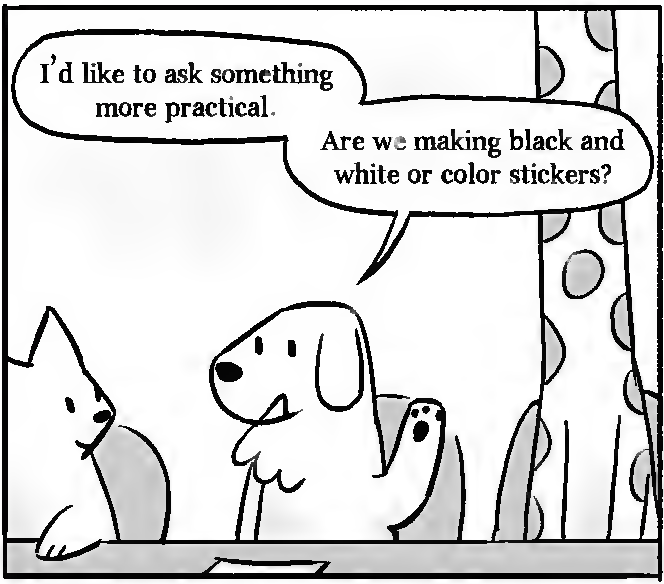
Wow! Great idea!
Hurray! We can finally have our own stickers!

Alright, let's do this!
There are 40 stickers in one set.
Who wants to appear on the stickers?
Me me me!!
I want to be on the stickers in our reader's chats!

I don't have much emotions to make a good sticker.
Come on!

There are 13 of us, so each of us should have 3 stickers on average!



I'd like to ask something more practical.
Are we making black and white or color stickers?

Good question, I think it's better to ask our readers!

Great! I'm just starting to get bored with the default stickers and emoticons!
I love to use stickers instead of typing out how I feel!
It's faster and more fun!
